MRS. HARDING PATRONESS

AT ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL

Mrs. Harding heads the list of patronesses for the Roosevelt memorial ball at the New Willard tonight. The ball is being given by the Georgia Roosevelt Association for the District of Columbia in the interest of the Bulloch Hall building fund. Mrs. Harding conveyed her acceptance to Mrs. James Longstreet, chairman, on the eve of her departure for the South. En route from Atlanta to Washington the Presidential party will pass through Roswell, the little Southern town where Bulloch Hall, the birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt's mother is situated. The Georgia Association of the District is undertaking to arrange for the Presidential party to make a brief stop in Roswell for the purpose of visiting Bulloch Hall.

Among those who will entertain box parties during the evening will be the leaders in residential, official and diplomatic circles. Mrs. Thomas Holdip Stevens, of Stoneleigh Court, will entertain a box party which will include a group of close personal friends of the late President Roosevelt. Mrs. Eugene Pomeroy has reserved a box and will come down from her summer home on the Jersey coast specially for the occasion. Miss Emma Hamilton Bulloch, a cousin of the late President, will occupy a box with a party of Georgians. Mrs. Milton Allen and Mrs. Guy

Despard Goff have been added to the list of patronesses.

D. A. R. Card Party Nov. 4.

A card party will be given at Wardman Park Hotel on Friday afternoon, November 4, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of raising funds to further the Americanization work in the District, under the auspices of the Dolly Madison, Sarah St. Clair, E. Pluribus Unum and Victory Chapters, D. A. R.

The committee of arrangements consists of the state regent, Mrs. Francis A. St. Clair, Mrs. Henry B. Patten, Mrs. Tonia J. Halberg, Mrs. Sylvanus E. Johnson and Mrs. Joseph Stewart, regents respectively of the four chapters, and Mrs. Elmer E. Curry, Mrs. Gurney S. Strong, Mrs. Albert S. Jones, Mrs. Richard E. Claughton, Mrs. Harry C. Grove, Mrs. David D. Caldwell, Mrs. W. C. Hanson and Mrs. Charles W. Floyd.

Bible Class Aids Near East.

Funds for the aid of the Near East, amounting to $500 were subscribed last night by the men's Bible class of the Fourth Presbyterian Church at their first anniversary of the founding of the class. Congressman Richard Yates was the speaker.

THE American Legion's foreign guests yet hold the center of stage in Washington and will for the rest of the week. Admiral Lord Beatty has gone to New York. Lady Beatty accompanying him. General Diaz and General Baron Jacques are starting tomorrow on their trip West. But Marshall Foch is coming tomorrow evening and on Saturday Washington will do homage to France's greatest soldier. Besides being entertained at luncheon by the President and Mrs. Harding on Saturday, the French Ambassador and Miss Jussend are giving a dinner in his honor in the evening and a number of other guests are being invited to meet him at the embassy afterwards.

THE Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier gave a luncheon at the embassy today for their countryman, Gen. Baron Jacques. The company to meet him included the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, the British Ambassador and Lady Goddes, Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy; Henry P. Fletcher, Undersecretary of State, Admiral and Mrs. William H. Benson, James M. Beck, Solicitor General, the Third Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss and Mr. Bliss' father, William H. Bliss, who is visiting them; Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles McCawley, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Col. James A. Drain, of the American Legion; Commander de la Ruyiere, aide to General Jacques and Jean de la Fontaine, of the embassy staff.

Baroness de Cartier returned yesterday to the embassy from New York, where she lingered for a few days on arriving from Europe.

GENERAL DIAZ, Italy's representative at the American Legion's convention is spending a day in Annapolis inspecting the Naval Academy and was entertained at luncheon there by Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, superintendent of the academy, and Mrs. Wilson. The general, who will return to town this afternoon, is accompanied by his aide, Gen. de Lucca Kennedy, Col. M. C. Buckley, U. S. A., honorary aide; the Marquis di Bernerzo, military attaché of the Italian embassy; Capt. Piero Civalieri, naval attaché of the embassy; Major Coconelli and Lieutenant Ruspoli, aides to General Diaz; Mr. Wilton and Dr. Foster, of the American Legion; and Capt. Luke McNamee, U. S. N. Tonight Colonel and the Marquis di Bernerzo are giving a dinner at Raucher's in honor of General Diaz, the company including the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks, and the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Wainwright. The general and his party will leave tomorrow morning in a special car for Kansas City for the convention of the American Legion and will travel as far as San Francisco before returning to Washington for the Armistice Day celebrations.

Last evening, after dining with his staff, General Diaz attended the performance at B. F. Keith's theater. To digress at bit, it has just come to my attention that last week President Harding, former President Woodrow Wilson and former President William Howard Taft all visited Keith's last week—probably the first time in history that a President and two former Presidents were entertained beneath one roof in so short a space of time.

Coolidge's Guests.
The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge were the guests of honor at dinner last evening of Congressman Joseph G. Cannon and Miss Helen Cannon. The guests invited to meet them included the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby, Senator and Mrs. Truman A. Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McClintock, Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, Charles Hamlin and Merrill Moores.

The Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, Premier of Great Britain and delegate to the conference on the limitation of armaments, has accepted the offer of Mrs. Charles A. Munn's residence 1601 Massachusetts avenue, which he will occupy while attending the conference.

Mrs. Denby Goes to New York.
Mrs. Edwin Denby, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, will go today to New York to be gone for several days.

John Dynely Prince, American Minister to Denmark, and Mrs. Prince are being much entertained during their stay in Washington. Last evening the Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirski gave a dinner for them, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Miss Mary E. Patten, and the counselor of the legation, Michael Kwapiszowski and Mme. Kwapiszowska.

The Minister of Denmark, Mr. Bruun, had a luncheon at the Shorham yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. Prince.

Mrs. Henry P. Fletcher, wife of the Undersecretary of State, has gone to New York to meet her sister, Mrs. Cortland Field Bish, who is arriving shortly on board the Paris from abroad. Mrs. Bishop will go to Lenox to join Mr. Bishop and they will remain in the country until after Christmas.

Miss Scott Weds.
The marriage this afternoon of Miss Agnes Virginia Scott, daughter of Mrs. Guy Tyrrell Scott, and Daniel Bartlett Searcy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Searcy, of Griffin, Ga., adds one more to the list of important autumn weddings.

The ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock in St. Thomas Church by the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the reception following, at the home of the bride's mother, in Belmont street, will be very informal, with only an intimate group of relatives and friends present.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her grandfather, former Senator Nathan Bay Scott, will wear a lovely wedding gown of kitten's ear satin, made on simple lines, with a long court train of the satin. The bodice, which is sleeveless, is made with a vest of duchess lace, and long ropes of pearls trim the skirt.

Her tulle veil, which falls several yards on the floor, is arranged with a coronet of duchess lace and clusters of orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor and the two bridesmaids will wear georgette frocks in pastel shades of blue, lavender, and pink, with picture hats of black tulle, trimmed with large bows in the front. They are carrying arm bouquets of large yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Sallie Cushman, the maid of honor, will be in blue, her gown being fashioned with hoops on the sides, and Miss Lella Scott and Miss Anne Scott, two sisters of the bride, will be her bridesmaids, the former wearing pink, the latter blue. Their frocks are made on straight lines.

St. Thomas Church, which lends itself so well to a wedding, will be decorated with autumn foliage and yellow chrysanthemums, a background of palms, ferns, and chrysanthemums being used on the altar.

Mr. Searcy and his bride will leave during the early evening for a wedding trip, and will make their home in Griffin.

Musical Evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest George Walker were hosts at a delightful musical last evening, entertaining at their residence, 2112 S street, Miss. Hugh Camp, formerly Miss Ethel Camp, of Washington, who has been living in Switzerland for many years, sang a number of French and Russian songs, and Mrs. John L. Cable, wife of Congressman Cable of Ohio, played piano selections, her program including some of her own compositions. Both are gifted musicians.

whose talent has been highly cultivated.

Mrs. Ralph Barnard's contralto numbers, a group of songs by Harry Stevens, the well-known Washington singer, and humorous numbers in which Mr. and Mrs. Stevens joined, contributed to the enjoyment of the guests. Little Miss Myrtle Stevens, dressed as a sailor lad, "brought down the house" with her songs and impersonations.

Among the guests were Mrs. Charles W. Kutz, wife of the former Engineer Commissioner, who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Walker and who assisted the hostess in welcoming her guests; Commissioner and Mrs. Cuno Rudolph, Mrs. Theodore Noyes, Mrs. Theodore Pomeroy, Miss Daisy Prentiss, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou, Mrs. Victor Kauffmann, Commander and Mrs. Fritz L. Sanjoo, Congressman and Mrs. Royall Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Holcombe and Miss Eugenia Holcombe, Mrs. Strother Smith, Mrs. Charles B. Howry, Miss Elizabeth Howry, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells, Captain and Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. E. (Continued on Page 11.)
